

Kleinwort Benson Entrepreneurs Forum

3 June 2009

 Kleinwort Benson

Exit strategies into the upturn

As a seasoned Entrepreneur you will appreciate the importance of thinking long term at all times and focusing on future goals for your business. If you are considering exiting your business in the next few years this event will bring you together with experts who will provide you with essential advice on how to maximise your sale into the Market upturn. The discussion will be followed by informal networking over refreshments.

The expert panel consists of:

Andrew Pemberton

Group Finance Director, HKI Limited

Andrew is the Group Finance Director of HKI Limited, Europe's leading healthcare informatics business.

In 2004, Andrew was a key member of the management team that led the management buy out of the group from its US owners to take the business independent using private equity funding.

Andrew has a wealth of M&A experience having completed four acquisitions in the UK, one in Spain, and was instrumental selling the UK division of HKI to Capita plc in February 2009. Andrew is currently involved with the sale of the Spanish division.

Mark Humphries

Head of Mergers and Acquisitions, Catalyst

Mark specialises in selling businesses for public companies, private clients and private equity backed businesses. Recent clients include ASSA, CMCS and GLS. He is also a leading figure in the London corporate finance community advising companies and management teams on private equity backed acquisitions.

Mark has completed deals across a wide variety of sectors and is head of Catalyst's Support Services and Education and Training sector teams. He is also a board member of our international network, Mergers Alliance.

Mark qualified as a chartered accountant with Coopers & Lybrand (PwC) and spent a period of his career in the M&A team at GKN, a FTSE 100 company.
